Attach: CanadaDelegation.InfoMemo.docx

Hey there -- Let me know if there is any interest in joining this trip (see attached memo) to the rainforest of Ecuador the last week of September. Will be compelling and life-impacting and you can meet the people I've been working with for several years. Ian Watson, who invested in your round and who is someone you should meet, is coming with his wife Victoria. Also, we are looking for support for the trip if you are interested we can fold it into your investment with 10% premium. No pressure if not interested as Ian seems to want the opportunity. xx

Private and Confidential/Do Not Distribute

Ecuador Trip – Preliminary Itinerary and Key Information

5 September 2017

Delegation /North America

Honored Guests /Leaders: Former National Chief of the Assembly of First Nations, Phil Fontaine; Grand Chief Wilton Littlechild; Grand Chief Edward John

Participants: Attorney John Phillips; Attorney Peter Grant (TBD); Greenpeace Founder and Environmental Leader Rex Wyler; Supporters Ian Watson and Victoria Watson; Artist Lisa Gibbons; Others TBD

Delegation Hosts/Ecuador

Luis Yanza (FDA, or Amazon Defense Coalition), Juan Aulestia (FDA), Others TBD

Host: Role of the FDA

The Frente de Defensa de la Amazonia (FDA, or known also as the Amazon Defense Coalition) is the host of the trip. This organization has led the campaign to hold Chevron accountable since its founding by Luis Yanza and others in the early 1990s. The organization is the beneficiary of the legal judgment against Chevron that is being enforced in Canada. Two members of the FDA (Yanza and Pablo Fajardo) are recipients of the prestigious Goldman Environmental Prize. The FDA represents both indigenous and farmer communities who live in the area affected by the Texaco-Chevron oil contamination, which is approximately 1,500 square miles and includes roughly 80 communities.

Contact Information

Please note that Laura Miller is helping to organize the trip. Her email is lbmiller104@gmail.com. You might be hearing from Laura directly.

Key Dates

Sunday, Sept. 24 – Arrive Mariscal Sucre International Airport in Quito, Ecuador. Transfer to Hotel Quito. Try to arrive in time for dinner. Feel free to arrive Saturday to you can adjust to the altitude and get some rest as activity during the trip might be intense.

Monday, Sept. 25 – Early departure via air to Lago Agrio, Ecuador. Visit affected sites and communities in areas with oil and environmental impacts. Meet with representatives of the FDA, the community-based coalition that has led the campaign against Chevron for two decades. Return early evening to Quito.

Tuesday, Sept. 26 – Meetings in Quito with government officials; Confederacion de Nacionalidades de Ecuador (CONAIE), Ecuador's largest indigenous organization that was founded in 1986; leaders of civil society. Possible press event. Reception with key supporters and Ecuadorian leaders in evening to be followed by private dinner.

Wednesday, Sept. 27 – Depart Mariscal Sucre.

Note: As said, feel free to arrive Saturday; you can also stay a day or two longer if you wish. There is plenty to do in Quito if you have additional time. Let us know and we will extend the hotel reservation and help you plan some interesting activities.

Plane reservations

We have found that it is easier if each member of the delegation books his or her own flight to Ecuador. We have budgeted $1,000 for round-trip airfare and transfers to and from airports on both ends. If you need special dispensation with regard to airfare or any other expense we have not anticipated, please contact Steven. You can either purchase your own ticket and receive reimbursement, or send the reservation to Steven who will arrange for purchase. In any event, please send all flight information so we can keep track of arrival times.

There are no nonstop flights from North America to Quito other than one from New York City on TAME, Ecuador's national airline which we do not recommend. If you want to pass through the U.S., the easiest direct routes generally are through Miami (American Airlines), Houston (United), and Atlanta (Delta). Copa (Panama) and Avianca (Columbia) also have flights that connect through Bogota and Panama City.

Visas and Passport information

You need a passport to enter Ecuador. Visas generally are not needed for travelers arriving from Canada, the United States, and the United Kingdom.

Please send your passport information (name, nation, and passport number) so we can purchase airline tickets for the flights within Ecuador.

Immunizations

Please check with your doctor. Generally, not needed for a one-day trip to the rainforest.

Clothes

Quito sits at roughly 9,000 feet. Temperatures can become cool at night so bring a jacket or sweater. There is a lovely heated pool at the Hotel Quito so bring a bathing suit if you like to swim. The weather is usually comfortable during the day.

In the rainforest, bring light clothes, a hat, suntan lotion, and insect repellent. Hiking boots or running shoes will suffice. Travel will be in comfortable vehicles. We will not be hiking or walking long distances.

Transfers from Airport to Hotel Quito

Because people are arriving at different times, please take a taxi from the airport to the hotel. There is a taxi line outside baggage claim. Fare to the Hotel Quito is approximately $30 and the ride takes between 30 minutes and one hour, depending on traffic.

Hotel

The Hotel Quito is an Art Deco-style building constructed in the 1960s that sits on a high ridge overlooking the city. The views are spectacular. The rooms are modest and comfortable.

Meals

All meals will be provided. Breakfast each morning will be in the Hotel Quito at the buffet.

Time

Note that Quito is one hour behind EST (New York and Toronto) and two hours ahead of PST (Vancouver).

Briefing Book/Background

A briefing book with a detailed itinerary, contact info, biographies, key information, and articles will be provided to each participant prior to departure. Luis Yanza and Steven Donziger will provide a briefing upon arrival and various briefings will take place throughout the trip.

Biographies

Please send a biography or any relevant background information that you wish to be included in the briefing book.

Let me know when you can call, so she knows the call is coming. I know you have a government meeting at 4:30 today so would be good to call her before that if possible.

I also am sending her photos from yesterday. If anyone wants to send me additional photos, I can send those, too.

I talked about the press conference today and what was discussed.

Thanks! Karen

Subject: Ecuador delegation -- Thank you

To everybody,

On behalf of the FDA and the affected communities in Ecuador's Amazon, I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to each of you for taking the time to come to the rainforest to observe the environmental damage and to listen to the stories of the local population.

The presence of each of you in the "Amazon Chernobyl" area of Ecuador was profoundly felt. It sent a powerful message to the local communities that they are not alone, and that their situation matters to thoughtful and caring people who have the capacity to do something meaningful on their behalf. For me personally, it was an extraordinary and historic experience. The arrival of our Canadian brothers and sisters set in motion alliances among peoples in Ecuador that we have not seen in the 24-year history of the campaign. We believe these alliances create a solid foundation for accelerated progress in the coming months.

I want to single out National Chief Phil Fontaine and Grand Chief Ed John for going "all in" on the trip. Your insight, commitment, and personal warmth resonated greatly. I also want to thank Ian Watson and Victoria Watson for their presence and support which has helped bring us all together and to make the campaign against Chevron possible.

I will keep this group updated periodically on our progress on the Canada litigation and follow-up plans. I also am going to add each of you to our distribution list so you can get materials.

Love to you all,

Steven
